1. Kindred Is Not Medical or Clinical Care

Kindred Asterling AI Coaching ("Kindred", "we", "us", or "our"), operated by Landon Syroid in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, is an AI-assisted wellness coaching and personal reflection app. Coaching replies are written by an AI system, not a person.

KINDRED IS NOT A LICENSED HEALTHCARE PROVIDER, THERAPIST, MEDICAL CLINIC, CRISIS SERVICE, OR PSYCHIATRIC FACILITY.

- No medical or therapeutic advice: AI coaching replies, reflection prompts, body scan notes and progress views are for personal reflection and general information only.
- No diagnosis or treatment: Kindred does not diagnose, treat, prevent or cure any physical or mental health condition. It does not replace a physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, counsellor or other healthcare professional.

- Using Kindred alongside care: you may use Kindred to organize your thoughts, including before appointments, but decisions about your health belong with you and your care providers.

2. Medication & Habit Tracking

Medication tracking and reminders are a personal log you set up yourself.

- Kindred does not prescribe, review, adjust or check medications, doses or schedules.
- Kindred does not check for drug interactions, side effects or whether a medication is right for you.
- Reminders can be delayed or fail. Do not rely on Kindred as your only reminder for doses that matter to your health.
- Talk to your doctor or pharmacist before starting, changing or stopping any medication or supplement.

3. Emergencies & Crisis Support

Kindred is not monitored by people and cannot respond to emergencies. The AI may not recognize that you are in crisis.

If you are in danger or thinking about harming yourself, get help now:
- Call 911, or go to the nearest emergency department.
- In Canada or the United States, call or text 9-8-8 for the Suicide Crisis Helpline (Canada) or the 988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline (United States).
- Elsewhere, contact your local emergency number or crisis line (findahelpline.com lists services by country).

4. No Guaranteed Outcomes

We do not promise any particular personal, psychological, career or physical result from using Kindred.

AI output can be wrong. Check important information and use your own judgment before acting on any coaching reply.

5. Adults Only

Kindred is only for adults aged 18 and older and is not directed to anyone under 18.
